

NIKKI VIGNEAULT
1 (506) 260 5400 (cell)
nikkivigneault@gmail.com
64 Loddington Street, New Maryland, New Brunswick, E3C2S4

Skills and Qualifications:

- Experience with HTML5, CSS3, React, Javascript, MySQL2
 - Recent full-stack coding bootcamp graduate
 - Quick and enthusiastic learner and problem solver
 - Dependable, reliable employee
 - Works well independently and in a team environment
-

Notable Work Experience:

September 2019 - June 2023: Theatre New Brunswick - Production Manager & Technical Director

Responsibilities: Creating production schedules for each season, organizing and ordering technical equipment, managing and going on provincial tours, communicating with incoming artists and booking travel and accommodations.

November 2018 - February 2019: Hart House Theatre - Assistant Stage Manager

Director: Julie Tomaino

Show: Hair

Responsibilities: Organizing props and costumes and assisting actors before and during the show with quick changes, or if anything goes wrong.

January – April 2018: Theatre New Brunswick's Young Company - Stage Manager

Director: Lisa Ann Ross

Shows: A Herman Tale and Goodbye Marianne

Responsibilities: Making sure actors were ready to go on time and all props, set and costumes were presentable

June – September 2016 & May – December 2017: Calithumpians & Fredericton Outdoor Summer Theatre - Production Manager, Prop/Costume organizer, Performer

Producer: Peter Pacey

Show: NB Can 150

Responsibilities: Along with scheduling and performing on tour I worked organizing and cataloguing the company's props and costumes as well as making new props and costume pieces as needed.

Education:

2023 - Graduating October 17th, 2023 from the University of New Brunswick with a certificate in full stack web development

2017 – Graduated from York University in June with a Bachelor of Fine Arts with Honours in Theatre Production
